CMX CELEBRATES 2008 NEW GENERATION AWARD RECIPIENT PATRICK COLE

MANALAPAN, NJ – MAY 12, 2009 – CMX, a national engineering and consulting firm, celebrated the presentation of the 2008 Next Generation Award to Patrick K. Cole, P.E. Mr. Cole is a Project Manager for CMX, licensed as a Professional Engineer and a Certified Municipal Engineer. The 2008 Next Generation Award, given at the Annual Conference of the New Jersey Section of the American Water Works Association (NJAWWA), recognizes the exceptional achievements and leadership qualities possessed by a young professional. The award is presented to a member of the association, aged 35 or younger.

“We are exceptionally proud of Patrick’s accomplishment,” said George McCann, Chief Executive Officer at CMX. “This award recognizes his promising future as a leader, not only at CMX but in the community. Congratulations.”

Mr. Cole attained his BS in Mechanical Engineering at the University of Delaware in 2000. He is currently working towards an MS in Civil and Environmental Engineering at Rutgers University, projected to graduate in 2010. Mr. Cole is an active member of the NJAWWA as well as the Water Environment Foundation (WEF), which focuses mostly on wastewater and storm water management. In 2007, Mr. Cole was the recipient of the Fresh Ideas Award, also presented by NJAWWA. Mr. Cole current resides in Brielle in Monmouth County with his wife and son.
